

Department of Environmental
Conservation

Conservation strategies for climate change resilience

Learn about recent analyses to support climate adaptive conservation planning in the Hudson River Estuary and Watershed

Hosted by the Hudson River National Estuarine Research Reserve Estuary Training Program

Tuesday, June 21, 2016 from 1:00 PM – 2:30 PM – Webinar

Conservation strategies for climate change resilience

Guest Panelists

Betsy Blair
Hudson River National Estuarine
Research Reserve (HRNERR)

James Mudd
Scenic Hudson

Nava Tabak
Scenic Hudson

Sacha Spector
Doris Duke Charitable
Foundation

Hosts

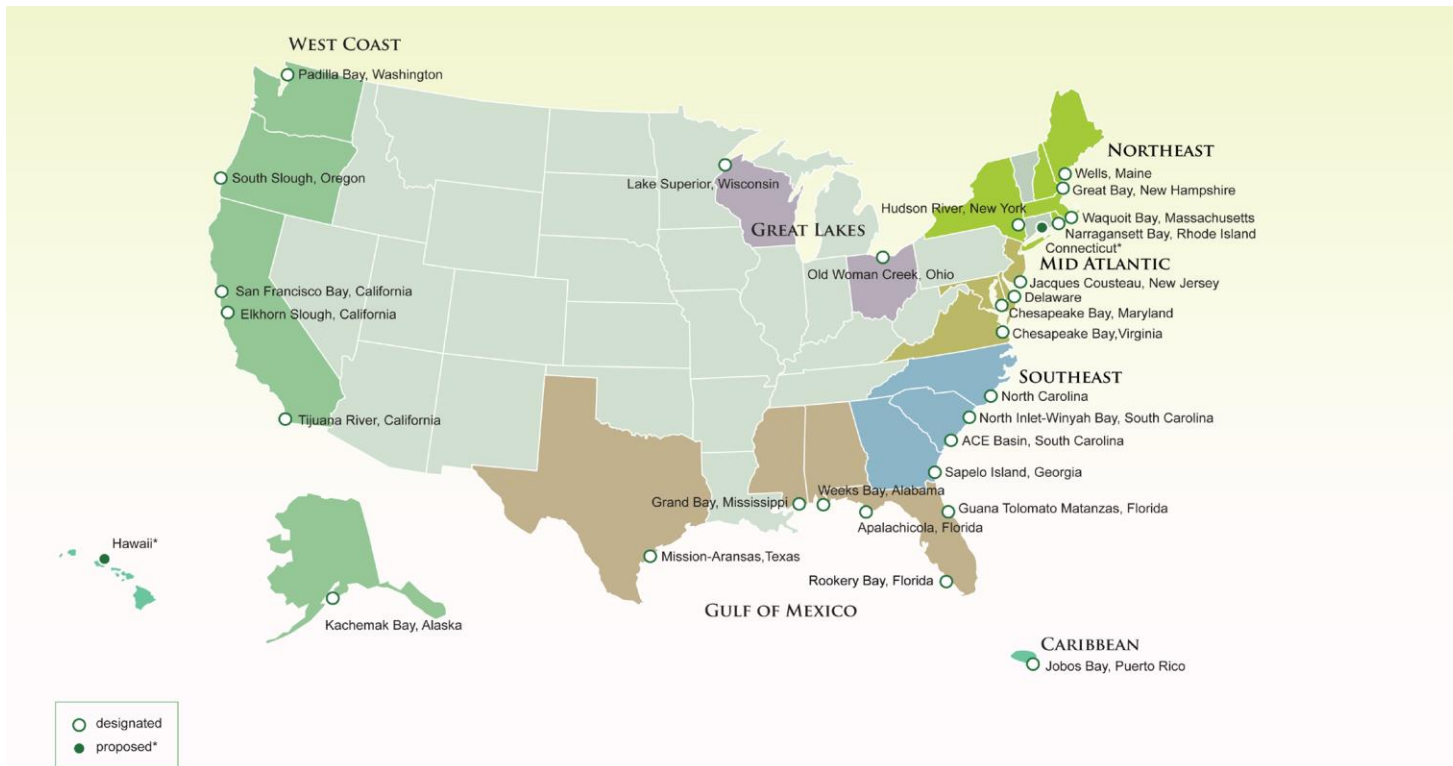

Emilie Hauser
HRNERR

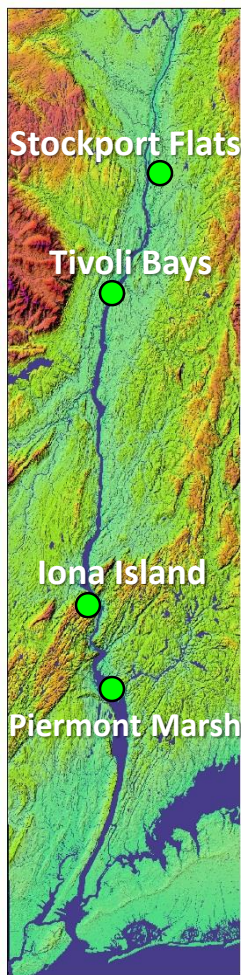

Sarah Lipuma
HRNERR and Student
Conservation Association

National Estuarine Research Reserve System

Department of Environmental
Conservation

Hudson River National Estuarine Research Reserve

- Mission: improve the health and vitality of the Hudson River Estuary by protecting estuarine habitats through integrated education, training, stewardship, restoration, and monitoring and research programs.
- 5,000 acres at four sites
- NYS – NOAA partnership, with NYS DEC as lead agency
- Supports NYSDEC Hudson River Estuary Program Action Agenda

Agenda

- 1:00 – 1:05 Welcome and Introductions
Emilie Hauser and Sarah Lipuma, HRNERR
- 1:05 – 1:15 Fulfilling the vision of the NYSDEC Hudson River Estuary
Program Action Agenda
Betsy Blair, HRNERR
- 1:15 – 1:25 Findings and Applications of Recent Scenic Hudson
Conservation Planning Initiatives
Sacha Spector, Doris Duke Charitable Foundation
- 1:25 – 1:50 Hudson River Tidal Wetland Migratory Pathways
Nava Tabak, Scenic Hudson
- 1:50 – 2:15 Hudson Valley Conservation Strategy
Jim Mudd, Scenic Hudson
- 2:15 - 2:30 Discussion and Question/Answer

Reminders

- Use the chat function to ask questions as they arise during the webinar.
- Do not put your phone “on hold.”
- Please mute your phones.
- Take the survey evaluation after the webinar.
- Be aware that the webinar is being recorded.
- If you are participating as part of a group, please send the names and email addresses of those in your group to Sarah.Lipuma@dec.ny.gov

Thanks for participating!

Emilie Hauser

Hudson River NERR

emilie.hauser@dec.ny.gov

Sarah Lipuma

sarah.lipuma@dec.ny.gov

845-889-4745

Send group
attendee
list to Sarah.

Please take the evaluation when you exit. It will appear when you close the webinar.

Presentations and recording will be at:
<https://www.hrner.org/estuary-training/trainingtopic/climate-adaptive-conservation-strategies/>